

Aviator Training, Aviaizdat, Aviagrand and Aviaizdat Form the A11 Group

July 2021 – Moscow, Russia – An Aviator Training Center (“Aviator Training”), an Aviaizdat, LLC company (“Aviaizdat”), an Aviagrand, LLC company (“Aviagrand”), and an Aviastaff, LLC company (“Aviastaff”) announce the formation of the A11 Group (“A11 Group”). This formation kicks off the start of creating new products in the field of aviation and business education, aviation documentation management, consulting, and continuous airworthiness.

“With the group formation, we combine resources of participating companies in developing the innovative solutions for our clients, and providing them with further comprehensive support in overcoming challenges of the Global air transportation crisis”, said Vladislav Berlev, Director of Aviator Training and a head of the newly formed A11 Group.

“Since 1960s Aviaizdat has been cooperating with various Russian civil aviation enterprises. Now we are glad to become a part of the A11 Group as it will facilitate the sharing of our knowledge and experience in the with the civil aviation enterprises. This will also increase the level of standardization and unification of aviation terminology, which will eventually help raising understanding and acceptance of documentation in the international arena”, said Liliya Zentsova, Director General of Aviaizdat.

“During the pandemic time, it's more than ever that we feel importance of the collaborative work to overcome the crisis and its consequences. We are pleased to supplement the experience of our colleagues from Aviator Training and Aviaizdat with the Aviagrand's competencies”, said Alexander Goverdovsky, Executive Director of Aviagrand.

“The personnel demand in aviation requires special attention especially when the combination of personnel's knowledge, skills and attitude become crucial for companies to stay afloat. Being a part of the A11 Group, Aviastaff works for the benefit of aviation and has the goal of creating a pool of professionals who are interested in personal and professional development”, said Kristina Reva, Director General of Aviastaff.
